Affordable & Fun

Your wedding day should be full of fun and love, a day to be recorded with the greatest of care and professionalism. The excitement starts at home, and so do we, recording those special moments with the bride, her parents and bridesmaids as they prepare. Then onto the groom and his parents at the service, the bride arriving and those romantic moments during the ceremony. We will capture your family in the picture before we move onto a number of fantastic locations for those magic moments of the couple together and with their bridal party as they have fun. The coverage is completed with the reception shots before all your guests arrive. Then you are free to enjoy the evening knowing that The Occasion Studios have all the Fun, Excitement, Magic and Romance of your special day ready for you to re-live every time you look at your wedding album.
